Split Squad...

Dylan Scheirich

Nathan Figueroa hands off to Ethan Koval

James Jaskowiak

Kyle Brown

Last night the team split up to compete at 2 different meets. The Frosh/Soph team went to the very competitive Hersey Invite. While Dylan Scheirich did not break the meet record (like he did last Saturday at Glenbard West), he did continue his winning ways in the Shot Put. Zach Schwarz got up for 2nd in the 800m. Chago Basso finished 1st in the Discus and 3rd in the Shot Put while teammate Austin Lynch was 3rd in the Discus. CJ Molino set a new PR in the 300 IH. James Jaskowiak set a new PR in the High Jump. Pole Vaulters Kyle Brown and Ethan Koval continue to make progress as they finished 2nd and 3rd.

The rest of the team competed in the final "Open" meet of the year at Wheaton North, and several strong performances were turned in. Gio Basso looks like he is rounding into form as he set a new PR in the Long Jump. In a rare 200m opportunity Justin Fowich ran a PR in that event. Alec Tau also got a PR in the 200m. The 4x800 relay team of Eric Dade, Matt Miarka, Lucas Bracher and Andy Tomaka ran a very strong race.

Back in the Field events Curtwan Evans set a new PR in the Discus while fellow thrower Clay Wagner set a PR in the Shot Put. Elliot Krause continues to climb in the Pole Vault as he set a new PR.

Next up for the Lancers is the DuPage County meet Friday night at Naperville Central. This is the last tune up before the Dupage Valley Conference meet which will be at East Campus on Friday May 16th.
