Reality Check...

This past Saturday the Lancers got a bit of reality check as they finished 10th out of 22 teams at the Proviso West Invite. The meet featured the defending state champion teams in both 2A (Cahokia) and 3A (York) as well as other traditional powers Neuqua Valley, and Wheaton North. While the Lancers were missing several key pieces, other athletes managed to turn in great efforts. At the Varsity level Dylan Scheirich threw a state leading mark to win the Shot Put competition. Pole vaulters Ethan Koval and Kyle Brown both set new PRs while finishing 3rd and 4th. Frosh Dan Spejcher made his high school debut by recording PRs in both the Long and High Jumps. The 4x200 and 4x400 relay of Paul Garcia, Alex Giraud, Peter Szkaradek and Jacob Bartoli ran seasonal bests.

The Frosh/Soph level saw Chago Basso bounce back from illness to capture 1st in the Shot Put. Frosh Solomon Sangobowale made an eye opening debut while taking 3rd in the Long Jump. Alex Jorgensen made a strong statement in his first 800m race. The 4x200 relay of Darius Allen, Tyler Davis Jarod Pankau and Marcel Spiewak moved up the rankings to score.

The Lancers look to get back on track this Friday night as they compete at the Batavia Invite.
