Batavia Invite Champs...

The team was back in action Friday night at Batavia's beautiful 200m facility. The Lancers took advantage of the venue as they turned in some strong performances. Curtwan Evans started the night by throwing a PR in the Shot Put and capturing 1st place! Scott Filip followed that up with 1st place finishes in the High Jump, 55 Hurdles and the Triple Jump. Marcus Jegede set a PR in the Triple Jump while finishing 2nd. Shawn Koch captured 1st place in the Long Jump. Soph sensations Gio Basso (3rd in the Long Jump) and Antonio Shenault (2nd in the 55 High Hurdles) continued to impress. Tim Ehrhardt and Derrick Smith went 1-2 in the Pole Vault. In the distance events Dakota Morales took 3rd in the 3200m while Jeremy Lozano and Eric Dade finished 3-4 in the 1600m. Soph Frankie Panoski continued to improve his 800m as he dropped a 2 second PR! The unique meet format also allowed some young Lancers like Dante Glover, Brad McQueen, Jackson Nie, Dylan Scheirich and Peter Szkaradek their first taste of Invite competition.

On Saturday, Tim Ehrhardt and Derrick Smith competed in the Pole Vault Summit at Rolling Meadows High School. This meet brings together the top vaulters in the state. Tim Ehrhardt battled the competition and set a new PR as he emerged as the winner! Derrick improved on his seasonal best and finished 4th.

Good luck to LP alumni and current Wisconsin Badgers Dan Block (Big 10 Indoor Champion in the Shot Put) and Zach Ziemek (2nd Place Big 10 Indoor Meet in the Heptathlon) as they compete this weekend at the NCAA Indoor Championships at the University of Arkansas!

The Lancers are back in action this Friday night at Wheaton North.
