Neither Rain, Nor Cold...

Despite the “Spring” weather, the Track & Field team has braved the conditions and competed well. Last Thursday the throwers went to Fremd for a throws only meet. In the wind and cold Jeremy Kline captured 1st place in the varsity discus, and Greg Block took 2nd with a PR throw of 169’ 1”. Freshmen Curtwan Evans took 2nd place in the F/S shot put.

On Saturday the team was at Downers Grove South.

Despite the snow that fell at the end of the meet, the Lancers came through with 2nd place team finishes on both levels. Some of the highlights...

Kevin Spejcher broke the school record in high jump with a leap of 6’ 11”!

Zach Ziemek won both triple jump and pole vault. Scott Filip won the 110 HH and took 2nd in the triple jump. Jeremy Kline and Greg block finished 1-2 in the shot put. Jermaine Kline and Jeremy captured 1-2 in the discus.

Demetri Alimissis added a pair of 3rd place finishes in the 100 and long jump. As for the frosh/soph....Tim Ehrhardt and Derrick Smith went 1-2 in the pole vault. Derrick added a 2nd place in the high jump. Marcus Jegede and Mike Amerlan finished 1-2 in both the long and triple jumps. Marcus added a 2nd place in the 100m.

Craig Ryan and Per Johnson captured 2-3 in the discus. Eric Dade got up for 2nd place in the 800m while fellow frosh Jeremy Lozano took 3rd in the 3200m. The team is looking forward to the next competition and some warmer weather.
