Learning Curve...

Last night the Frosh/Soph team began two consecutive nights of competition. The team competed at the UpState 8 Frosh/Soph Conference meet. This marked the 1st "Invite" experience for many of the young Lancers. Greg Love led the way with a 3rd place finish in High Jump and 6th place in Long Jump. Marcos Alvarez PRed and placed 7th in the Triple Jump. Aaron Celia captured 8th in the Pole Vault. The 4x160m relay team of Peter Szkaradek, Alex Armas, Dante Glover and Alex Carusiello moved the baton around the track for 8th place. There were also several PR performances turned in yesterday. Marco Ibanez and Austin Lynch PRed on their way to finals in the Shot Put. Brad McQueen and Carusiello PRed in the 55m. Will Troyke tripled up and ran a PR in the 800m. John Bradley broke through and PRed in the 800m. David Fitzgerald led his heat wire to wire and PRed in the 1600m. Marcus Johnson and CJ Molino hurdled their way to PRs. Michael Race had a PR in the Pole Vault. Jeff Michareune and AJ Sharma raced to PRs in the 400m. All in all it was a good learning experience for the young team as they move forward.

The other half of the Frosh/Soph team is in action tonight at the Fenton Invite.
